

GENDER STUDIES

WE HUMANS CAN'T SEEM TO LEAVE ANYTHING ALONE

This is written under the category of "Humor" for a reason.

We all need to lighten up a little and learn to laugh at ourselves.

The Federal Government and various Colleges and Universities have spent Hundreds of Millions of taxpayer and student loan dollars on "Gender Studies" and research over a period of years.

It is rumored that the "final" conclusions from all this fact finding and money spent were so surprising and perhaps controversial, and may I say for those doing the studies a shock that they decided to bury the report in a previously abandoned Nuclear Missile Silo in the mid-west guarded round the clock by heavily armed troops.

Never the less, and despite all the care given, a single copy of this report fell into the hands of a "whistle blower" who has leaked it to our undercover agent.

To the great consternation of all the researchers it was finally concluded and scientifically established that, contrary to all publicly pronounced protocol and human wishes, there are two and only two genders. Male and Female.

Despite the efforts of some states and localities to encourage parents of newborns to leave blank the gender line on newborn birth certificates so that said newborn can come back at a later date, after they have decided what gender they want to be (from a creative list of 20+ options) and fill it in with the self chosen gender of their choice. However, that newborns true gender will remain the same as it was at birth at a biological, chromosome, genetic and DNA level throughout his or her life.

It was also established that the term "Trans-Gender" is not a gender. It would be more appropriate to title it the "Wannabe Gender". An example would be large, strong athletic males who "wannabe" dominate in women's sports. It simply describes those of one gender who desire to be a member of the other gender for any of a number of reasons. Despite wardrobe changes, good intentions, bad intentions, "plumbing" changes, hormonal treatment and all manner of "smoke and mirrors, if a self styled "Trans-Gender" has the cruel misfortune to die in such a way as the only option to identify them lies with a medical examiner and DNA analysis, the final report will show they were either male or female. There is no such thing as Trans-Gender DNA. Sorry.

Are You Tired Of Government Lies, Hypocrisy and Corruption?

Dogs, cats, horses, cows, chickens or people. There are two genders.

You can have all the fun you want, even invent new social constructs and groups but...

THERE ARE TWO AND ONLY TWO GENDERS AMONG WE HUMANS

Too bad about all those hundreds of millions of dollars spent on research.

..... God created mankind..... male and female He created them.     Genesis 1:27
