

Opportunity Rich Environment

I am often asked where I get ideas for the articles I write. If there is a problem, it is that too many ideas come my way. The media and daily news are an "Opportunity Rich Environment" for writers like myself.

Especially now, with next year being a Presidential Election Year, we have every "wannabe" trying to outdo every other "wannabe" by going farther and farther into the fringes to try to gain attention.

Just a few examples:

At last weekends Democratic Socialists of America Convention attendees were instructed to wave "Jazz Hands" because the sound of clapping could be offensive to some. Likewise, attendees were instructed to address others only in "Gender Neutral" terms. They were also told to not use "Aggressive Scents" and not to talk to "Outsiders" or "Cops". There was more.

Reminds me of the College Students in the news a year or so ago. The ones needing "safe" places on campus because they were "fragile". I think many referred to them as "snowflakes".

Are You Tired Of Government Lies, Hypocrisy and Corruption?

In the last Democratic Presidential Debate, Presidential Candidate Andrew Yang stated that it is already too late to reverse Global Climate Change and we should be moving the population to "Higher Ground". This in addition to his plan to provide a universal income of $1000 per month for everyone. He says his plan will be paid for by a new "Value Added Tax" which will return the money to Government.

Want some cheap beach front property anyone?

Following the mass shootings at El Paso, Texas and Dayton, Ohio our Nations Flags were ordered flown at half mast in the Nations Capitol. In an interview following the announcement, a former "FBI Assistant Director", Frank Figliuzzi told "Tabloid News Media" MSNBC Anchor Brian Williams, "The numbers 88 are very significant in the Neo-Nazi and the White Supremacy movement. Why? Because the letter 'H' is the eighth letter of the alphabet, and to them the numbers 88 together stand for 'Heil Hitler.' So we're going to be raising the flag back up at dusk on 8/8," (August 8th - the 8th day of the 8th month).

National Enquirer, eat your heart out.

If I tried, I could not create better material, you just can't make stuff like this up. The inmates are taking charge of the asylum.
