

PARTY PLANS

It is obvious to folks of all political persuasions that our President, Joe Biden's mental acuity is fading rapidly. I say this not in derision but in some measure of pity.

Soon, members of his ruling party will need to make a decision to invoke the 25th Amendment to the Constitution regarding incompetency of the President. I would guess this decision is on the near horizon and will be exercised sooner rather than later.

When that happens the Vice President, Kamala Harris will be sworn in as President.

This is a person who also ran for President but did not secure a single delegate in the primary races. She was unable even to carry her home state of California. Her former paramour, Willie Brown, previously California State Assembly Leader and San Francisco Mayor, would not endorse her. She does not have the backing of a significant portion of the Democratic Party.

Many believe that though Joe Biden supposedly chose her for a running mate because she "checked off two boxes" as both a woman and "minority", the real reason he chose her is because he perceived her to be an even weaker leader than he is.

If placed in the Presidency we can expect President Kamala Harris to begin to fade away in a very short time. The powers that be in her party will need to find a way to give her a final "nudge" to the sidelines. Perhaps with help from the Bill & Hillary Cartel. Or, perchance you think Hillary will look with favor on Kamala becoming the first woman president? The Clinton's have a knack for making no longer wanted folks to exit stage left.

When this happens, and I don't expect a lengthy time in the Oval Office for Ms. Harris, the party will need to again invoke that convenient 25th Amendment and remove her from office.

Stop Pulling the Wagon

Are You Tired Of Government Lies, Hypocrisy and Corruption?

Lets see. Under the Constitution who is next in line for the Presidency?

Drum Roll please.....

You got it. The Speaker of the House of Representatives. Nancy Pelosi.

Timing is of the essence. Keep in mind the Democrats need to complete this plan of succession before the 2022 mid-term elections when it is just possible they might lose control of the House of Representatives.

Anybody out there want to try and convince me that this was not the Party Plan from the beginning?

Are you scared yet.
