

The Problem With Critical Race Theory Dogma

I became acquainted with this mans writings and works a few days ago. I agree with his thoughts and words and could not say them any better so I will not try, simply reprint them here from the website I found them on.

Delano Squires

"there is a "narcissistic classroom cosplay that involves two groups in the elite, privileged class: White liberals seeking absolution for sins that they didn't commit; and Black liberals seeking empathy for injustices that they didn't endure."

Why Christianity And Critical Race Theory Cannot Coexist

We honor God when we acknowledge all members of the human race have equal worth. We dishonor Him when we ascribe certain sins to people based on skin color.

The Left Claims To Care About Black Lives While Abandoning Them

Street violence can't be fixed overnight, but progress can be made when the left begins to value black lives regardless of what is threatening them.

The Left's Vision Of Equity Will Cripple A Generation Of Minority Students

It is impossible to simultaneously lower standards and raise performance. The people who believe merit is racist will leave this generation ill-equipped to interpret and deal with the complexities of life.

Dear Democrats: Stop Treating Black Men Like We're Stupid Or Lose More Votes

It is deeply insulting to assume black men in general are less attuned to their own political interests than any other group is. But that's what leading Democrats keep doing.

It's Time For The Conversation About Black Lives To Stop Focusing On White People

Too many black leaders continue to proclaim black problems only matter when caused by white people and white thoughts are more important than black actions.
