

WAVES OF DESTRUCTION

ASSAULT ON AMERICA

Astute observations or conspiracy theories?

I have come to the conclusion through observation that the United States, in which I grew up, is midway through the third wave of its destruction. That is the United States most of us have loved all of our lives. That destruction seems to be coming at us in waves. Three so far.

FIRST WAVE

Wuhan Lab - Wuhan Province - China

The First Wave came ashore from Wuhan, China. Home of the Covid 19 Virus and Fentanyl:

Fentanyl, though manufactured in Wuhan, is mainly imported/smuggled in through our porous southern border by Drug Cartels and makes its way into the illegal drugs sold on the streets of America by gangs.

The Covid 19 Virus was most deadly to our senior citizens and the drug Fentanyl has been deadly to younger, drug addicted Americans.

Covid 19, which we are told may have "accidentally" escaped from the Wuhan Viral Lab, arrived in the United States mainly from infected local Wuhan Chinese residents who, while infected, visited major United States population centers as "tourists".

Keep in mind also that the Lab in Wuhan had been the recipient of hundreds of thousands of U.S. Taxpayer dollars through their connection with Dr. Anthony Fauci, the director of the U.S. National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID).

There are those who believe the Chinese Government, though they vehemently deny it, played a role in this because they were desperate to wreck the booming American economy and keep Donald Trump, whom they despised because he was such a tough negotiator, from getting re-elected. They preferred a new president who would be more malleable, perhaps someone related to Hunter Biden whom they had already enriched in a sweetheart deal. Is this true? We will likely never know the truth but it does have a certain "ring" to it. But the fact is the U.S. economy did crash, partly due to the virus but mostly due to decisions by major Democratic Governors to put their states into "Lockdown", forcing businesses to shut down and untold millions of otherwise productive citizens to stay home. Un-numbered hundreds of thousands of small businesses failed and small business people lost everything. The economy "crashed" and has yet to show any significant recovery, despite government claims.

This first wave destroyed our health and our economy.

SECOND WAVE

The 2020 Presidential Election:

Millions and millions of American's, a significant percentage of voters, believe that this was not an election. It was a very well planned, carefully orchestrated and expertly carried out Coup. Though hotly denied by the left, it is a fact that if you can corrupt some, fewer than you might think, specific, key voting districts, you can control the results of an election.

Despite mainstream media and social media giants efforts to deny and cover up any malfeasance in the election process, enough facts have escaped to cause more than just suspicion.

Voter precincts with more ballots cast for Biden than Registered Voters in the precinct. Large pallets filled with supposedly mail in ballots all uniformly flat as if they came out of a copier with no evidence of ever having been folded into a mail ballot envelope. "Mysterious" truckloads of "harvested" ballots delivered to counting centers "after hours". Thousands and thousands of mail in ballots from folks who had moved out of their voting district long before the election. And, it goes on and on.

Whether any of this is ever proved or disproved does not change the fact that the American voting public, in majority numbers, no longer trust the voting process and over 80% of all voters believe positive voter ID should be required to vote. The left does not want this.

The result is that faith in our sacred voting rights system is laying in shambles. Trust is gone.

The second wave destroyed our trust in our government.

THIRD WAVE

Critical Race Theory, Black Lives Matter, ANTIFA:

These, and similar organizations, all have their roots in Marxism and desire to tear down, burn everything and start over under their control.

Whatever is left over after the first two waves, is under dire threat of destruction from this third wave and from these organizations which are in full attack mode. If you disagree with them, they charge you with racism to put you on the defensive. That charge is used as a weapon to keep you quiet.

Their goal is to tear down statues (even Abraham Lincoln statues), rewrite history, tear up the Constitution and rewrite it to their specifications. There is no room in their world for America as it was founded and democracy as it has been practiced.

In addition they demand equity, not equality, in a purely Communist format. Their form of equity invariably leads to the very rich having their own form of equity, those in power have their own form of equity and everyone else has equity in poverty and misery as slaves to the state. Think Cuba.

This third wave instead of uniting us, fractures our unity along racial lines, non-negotiable demands and threatens our very Democracy.

I believe at every stage of this assault, our government has lied to and failed us. Am I wrong?

If you can agree with what is written here, share it with a friend, a family member or a neighbor. If we do nothing, we let those who hate America win by default. We need to push back and make our voices heard.
