JUST FOR FUN

I first wrote this piece several years ago as a "spoof" about television commercials that use this sales technique AND as a "poke" at our Federal Government, particularly the Federal Reserve System and Treasury Department under the direction of Congress.

I publish it again today - Just for Fun

I remember years ago when our daughter was young. We wanted to go someplace special but the wallet was empty. Our daughter said there was no problem, we could just go get some money out of the machine at the store. We tried to explain to her the concept of first putting money into the bank before the machine would give us money, but, no luck. She thought the machine was magic.

Well, thanks to modern technology, the folks at BETTER LIVING THROUGH MONEY MAGIC can now offer you the newest and greatest personal ATM ever. The MONEY MAGIC MACHINE. Their engineers have managed to combine an old fashioned ATM machine with a state of the art printer.
